

Drama Therapy Summer Practicum in Israel

July 1-23, 2020

The Drama Therapy Summer Practicum provides participants with 120 hours of professionally supervised practicum in drama therapy as well as advanced training with internationally acknowledged teachers. In addition to the challenge of working in another culture, the practicum offers the opportunity to meet experienced drama therapists working in Israel.

Instructors:

Professor Mooli Lahad, Dr. Susana Pendzik, Dr. Amnon Raviv, Dr. Chen Alon

Coordinator: Galila Oren

Field Work Coordinator: Shoshi Keisari

Practicum Overview:

The Practicum begins with a 2-day orientation and advanced training in Tel Aviv. Participants are ascribed a Field Practicum led by an experienced drama therapist in which they will work in small groups with a population (children, elderly, disabled). The Practicum will take place over a space of 3 weeks, 3 days a week, a total of 5 hours per session. The field work includes preparation, actual client-contact in groups, and onsite supervision. Field placements will be conducted throughout various locations within the country. Further supervision and advanced training are provided once a week in Tel Aviv. The program culminates with two days of intensive advanced training in the Galilee

Eligibility:

The Drama Therapy Summer Practicum is open to drama therapy students or/and professionals who wish to acquire field experience and advanced drama therapy training. The practicum will provide opportunities to apply knowledge and skills in unique cultural situations, and will enhance and develop professional competence. Applicants should present proof of drama therapy training and provide two letters of recommendation by accredited professionals. The application process will begin in December 2019, and it may include a personal interview through video-call.

Registration Fees:

US $1,750 - includes the practicum and onsite supervision costs, weekly advanced training workshops and master supervision, together with two-days accommodation in the Upper Galilee. (It does not include field work accommodation).

Credits:

The course provides accreditation for 120 hours of Supervised Clinical Practice and Continuing Education Training. Students can obtain credit points subject to the home institution approval.
